

NEW POTENTIAL FOR XTPL TECHNOLOGY, VERIFICATION OF THE SMART GLASS SECTOR

Nanotechnological XTPL closes the third quarter of 2018 being involved in an advanced, multi-phase proof of concept project for the growing smart glass sector. XTPL is particularly active in the US market where and it is working on new patent applications. This rapid development has been strengthened by further investments of the two German funds: ACATIS and Heidelberger Beteiligungsholding, which earlier already held more than 5% each in the company's shareholding structure.
